#ConfluenceofSkills #HRExcellence #HRConclave #UGI

ABOUT THE CONCLAVE

“Our journey to develop the qualities of Mindful Leadership calls us to be present in this moment, to be ‘still in the midst of activity’”

- Janice Marturano, Founder of the Institute for Mindful Leadership

United Group of Institutions presents its “SANGAM” – The Confluence of Skills that makes a wholesome HR Leader in these times being organized on 16th September 2023 at Sangam City, Prayagraj.

“SANGAM” – An HR Conclave, aims at bringing together the most knowledgeable and experienced HR professionals, Industry experts and leaders as well as academicians / practitioners / researchers associated with a plethora of fields from all over India for their experiential sharing and deliberation on important topics related to the HR function, talent acquisition, organizational success and business scenarios.

This conclave will bring to the HR enthusiasts, academicians, researchers and students a lineup of professionals who will subsequently share their insights on “Mindful & Agile Leadership - Stepping Stones to Excellence in Organisations”

OBJECTIVES OF THE CONCLAVE

- To foster fellowship amongst HR practitioners in the industry and to provide them a platform for a meaningful sharing of their insights on the evolution of best HR practices related to professional development.
- To enhance the connect between the corporate and academics by involving students to tackle any issues related to human resources and by facilitating the knowledge exchange in this world of change.
- To provide an opportunity to the future managers and leaders to take inspiration from the industry stalwarts.
- To open a dialogue and discussion on ‘thought, mindful and agile leadership’ that nurtures effectiveness in restructuring the workplace and workforce readiness in alignment with future needs and developments ensuring transformation and innovation.
